Why do we need SDGs?

- Czech National Anthem ... powered by Greenpeace ...

Introduction

- There is no one universal truth – points of view
- How much do you know about your clothes?
- Remember the game – banán, míč, tričko, kakao

- Ecological Footprint
- NIMBY

Talking about clothing ...

What would they say about it:

- An ecological activist
- A director of H&M
- A model
- A metrosexual / lumberman / shopaholic
- Ordinary guy from a small town
- Low impact man
- ...

Clothing – Just a few questions

- What do you take into consideration when you choose your clothing? (appearance, material, price, ...)
- Where do you usually go shopping? Why?
- Does your clothing say anything about you? What does it mean to you?
- Have you got any favourite pieces which are not mere „things“? (shoes, watches, scarf, ...)
- Is your clothing supposed to convey any message?
- Do you know where your clothes were made? Is it important for you to know?

Were you aware of these?

- There is a substantial amount of chemicals in your clothing.
- There are 27 – 30 millions of modern slaves.
- The worst (problem) are multinational clothing corporations.
- Often we buy impulsively or just one-use only clothes.
- Our worn clothes we donate to charity ruin African economy (often the environment too)
- Once our worn out things end up on a dump pile, it takes decades for them to decompose

3H

Everything you do is a statement!!!

Economy – Society - Environment

People, Planet, Prosperity, Participation, Politics

SUSTAINABLE = UDRŽITELNÉ

- Bearable – únosný, snesitelný
- Equitable – spravedlivý, nestranný, slušný, poctivý
- Viable – schůdný, realizovatelný

NIMBY

NOT IN MY BACKYARD!

NIMBY

- Have you ever had any problem with public facilities or anything else in your close neighbourhood? Name it.
- What are typical examples we encounter with every day?
