CHILDHOOD

- the best time of your life

- Some people say that childhood is the best time of your life. However, being a child has both advantages and disadvantages.
- On the plus side, you have very few responsibilities. For example, you don't have to go to work, pay bills, or do the shopping, cooking, or cleaning. This means you have plenty of free time to do whatever you want - watch TV; play on the computer; go out with friends; play sports, or pursue other hobbies. On top of that, public transport, cinema, and sports centres cost much less for children. All in all, being a child is an exciting, action-packed time in life.
- However, for every plus there is a minus. For one thing, you have to spend all day, Monday to Friday, at school. Studying usually means you have to do homework, and you have to take exams. What is more, you may have a lot of free time, but you are rarely allowed to do whatever you want. You usually have to ask your parents if you can do things, from going shopping in town to staying out late or going to a party. Last of all, although there are often cheaper prices for children, things are still expensive - and parents are not always generous with pocket money. There's never enough to do everything you want. The reality is that sometimes there's not enough to do anything at all!

4 To sum up, although some people see childhood as the best time in life, I think that children have no real choice, independence, or money. Nevertheless, it is true that choice, money, and independence all bring responsibilities and restrictions - which increase with age.

- There are four paragraphs. What is the purpose of each one?
- Match the pros with the cons.

Pros	Cons
1 don't have to go to work	are never given enough pocket money
2 can go out to parties with friends	have to do homework and take exams
3 don't have to cook and clean	have to go to school Monday to Friday
4 costs less to do things	need to ask your parents' permission

- You are going to write a 'for and against' essay. Write a list of pros and cons for one of these topics.
 - Getting older
 - Having a university degree
 - Having children while young
- Use your ideas from exercise 4 to write four paragraphs. Write about 250 words.

WRITING

Composition (argument) 1

In Part 2 of Paper 2, you may be asked to write a composition. One type of composition asks you to write about the advantages and disadvantages of a particular topic. You must organize what you are going to say before you start writing.

A Below is a composition on the advantages and disadvantages of living in the country. Fill each of the numbered spaces with one of the following words or phrases. Try not to use the same expression twice.

First of all/Firstly

In addition/ Moreover/ Furthermore

So/As a result/Therefore

However/On the other hand/In contrast

In conclusion/To sum up/On the whole

Living in the country is something that people from the city often dream about. (1) _____, in reality, it has both its advantages and disadvantages.

There are certainly many advantages to living in the country. (2) _____, you can enjoy peace and quiet. (3) _____, people tend to be friendlier and more open. A further advantage is that there is less traffic, so it is safer for young children.

(4) _____, there are certain drawbacks to life outside the city. (5) _____, because there are fewer people, you are likely to have fewer friends. (6) _____, entertainment is difficult to find, particularly in the evening. Furthermore, the fact that there are fewer shops and services means that it is harder to find work. (7) _____, you may have to travel a long way to work, which can be extremely expensive.

(8) _____, it can be seen that the country is more suitable for some people than others.

(9) _____, it is often the best place for those who are retired or who have young children.

(10) _____, young, single people who have a career are better provided for in the city.

B Match these headings to the four paragraphs.
